MAYSVILLE SCHOOLS WILL OPEN THIS YEAR ON SEPTEMBER 2d

Superintendent W. J. Caplinger Announces Opening Day of the 1919-20 School Session—Buildings Now Being Made Ready.

It's only a very short time until the youngsters of Maysville will begin getting their books and supplies ready for attendance at school for the next term. Prof. W. J. Caplinger, Superintendent of the City Schools, announced this morning that school would be opened this year on Tuesday, September 2d. This date is a little earlier than the school year usually begins but it has always been a custom that school should open on the Tuesday following Labor Day and this year Labor Day comes on the first day in September.

The Janitors have already begun to put the buildings in first-class condition for the children. All of the buildings are being thoroughly cleaned and everything will be in readiness on the first day of school.

On Saturday, August 30, the annual teachers' examinations will be held at the High School building and on the same day there will be entrance examinations for those who desire to enter the Maysville High School for this term.

Prof. Caplinger has been spending much time in the past two weeks throughout the county and adjoining counties in the interest of tuition students and he reports much success. Young men and women throughout this district are very much interested in the splendid record the Maysville High School has made in the past and it is thought that the attendance this year will be as large as usual if not larger.

All children and parents should bear in mind the opening date of the school for this year—Tuesday, August 2.

"I" MAN WILL ADDRESS MASON COUNTY TEACHERS

Mr. L. F. Zerfoss, of Lexington, district Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will be in attendance at the Mason County Teachers' Institute in this city on Thursday, August 28 to speak to the teachers on Recreation and Play. Mr. Zerfoss is no stranger in Mason county and is a very interesting speaker who will bring the teachers an interesting message.

Misses Marguerite Pogue and Susan Thompson left this morning for Crook Lake, Michigan, where they will visit Miss Minerva Powell.

ARTILLERYMEN COMING HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Officer Expected Here Today or Tomorrow to Select Camping Field For Platoon of Artillerymen From Camp Knox—Remain Here Until Wednesday.

The platoon of fifty artillerymen with their five officers, medical corps and kitchen crew, will arrive here Saturday. A member of the staff of officers is expected here today or tomorrow to meet with Mr. N. S. Calhoun, of the Bank of Maysville, friend of Major J. J. Gannon, chief of army recruiting in Kentucky, who is handling the local end of the arrangements.

This officer will view two places which will be recommended by Mr. Calhoun for the camp site for the platoon. The first will be the jail yard and the Court House yard and the second will be the County Infirmary grounds. Whether the first will be large enough or not is quite a question and as John Robinson's circus has rented the Infirmary grounds for Tuesday of next week, the soldiers will have to vacate that camp Monday evening.

The soldiers are now at Cynthiana having arrived there Tuesday evening and they will start with their fifty horses and several automobiles for Maysville Friday afternoon, camping during the night on the way.

While here the artillerymen will give exhibitions of drills with their two large field pieces and will endeavor to procure recruits for the service. They will leave here Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning for German town.

MAYSVILLE UNIONS PLANNING BIG LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

Grand Parade Through the City of the Union Men and Women of the City Will Be One Big Feature—People Will Be Shown the Strength of Organized Labor Here.

No plans for the celebration of Labor Day in Maysville have been made by any outside organization, those organizations realizing that the labor organizations in Maysville and Mason county were now large enough to handle themselves their big holiday in the proper manner. In the past outside organizations have handled the celebration and the union men and women have taken part but this year the celebration will be entirely in their hands, others helping this time.

Plans are already being made for the big Labor Day celebration and demonstration on Monday, September 1. The first organization to take action was the live, wide awake Carpenters' Union and they are being joined by the Barbers, the Clerks, the Brick Layers, the Cigar Makers and others. Plans have not been definitely announced but it is known that they include a big party at Beechwood Park and a grand street parade of union members and Mason county.

The growth of union organizations in Maysville has been steady and slow until the people of Maysville little realize the number of people in Maysville who work every day under the protection of the union label. The intention of this parade is to show to the people of Maysville, who have not been brought in direct contact with the labor organizations and who do not know to what extent they reach here at home, just how many people are affiliated with the labor organizations. As the Labor Unions hope to demonstrate their strength in this parade, there will be a desperate effort made to have every union man and woman in Maysville in the line of march and there is no doubt but that it will make a parade, the length of which is not now reamed by those who are not in possession of the membership of the various organizations.

There will be other interesting features arranged for the day which will be announced in due time. It is enough now to say that the entire celebration will be in charge of organized labor and it will be their day from sun rise until midnight. Make preparations now to have a big day with the union laboring men and women on Labor Day.

BAND MAKES HIT AT BROOKSVILLE SALE

The Maysville Boys' Band was at Brooksville Tuesday to attend a big lot sale and make music for the big gathering. Reports from there are to the effect that there was a very large crowd present, the sale was a great success in every respect and the band, as usual, made a big hit with the people.

MANY MASON COUNTY CHICKENS AT EWING FAIR

Over One Hundred Pure Bred Mason County Fowls Taken to Ewing This Morning in Special Car On L. & N. For Fair Display.

Some time ago the board of managers of the Ewing Fair Company asked the Mason County Poultry Association to take charge of the poultry exhibits at the big Ewing Fair this year and that that organization is going to do it properly and give to those attending this famous fair a good exhibition of fowls, is attested by the fact that in a special freight car over the L. & N. this morning more than 100 highly bred fowls were shipped with a keeper to Ewing.

Besides these Mason county fowls, there will also be a good showing of Flemish county chickens and the poultry show of the Ewing Fair this year promises to be one of the really big attractions of the big fair.

People in all adjoining counties have become vastly interested in poultry since the organization of the Mason County Poultry Association and since the adoption of a standard breed of fowls for Mason county. It is expected that this display at the Ewing Fair this year will have much to do with creating a desire among the poultry breeders of that progressive county to organize and adopt a standard breed for their entire county.

WESTERN ORATOR TO BE HEARD AT PARK ALSO ARMY MUSIC

The Fighting American Band and Frank Branch Riley Wednesday's Chautauqua Attractions—Dr. Bohn Thursday.

The Chautauqua program Tuesday was another brilliant success. The musical concert in the afternoon by the Chas. Edward Clarke Company was greatly enjoyed. Especially was the violin numbers by Mrs. Clarke enjoyed. Mrs. Pirie Beyea, famous American Red Cross Nurse, gave a most interesting address in the afternoon telling very interestingly of some of her experiences during the war.

In the evening the prelude by the Chas. Edward Clarke Company was greatly enjoyed and Lieut. Jean A. Picard, of the French Army, gave a good talk on the Rebuilding of France. Lieut. Picard, although in America for a short time, handled the English language quite well and made himself plainly understood to his large audience. He touched on many of the very important questions facing the nations after the war and dwelt on his native country. At the close of his lecture he gave most intelligent answers to a series of questions asked by the members of the audience.

Wednesday's program promises to be a big one. The big musical number of the entire week is scheduled. The Fighting Americans, a singing band of nine American Doughboys will furnish much lively music. They are heralded as the live-wire aggregation of the Chautauqua and promise a most unique program of music and fun.

Judge Charles Summer Lobinger, Judge of the United States Court for China, who was scheduled to appear this evening, was unable to come to the United States from China this summer and in his stead Frank Branch Riley, famous Western Orator of Portland, Oregon, will deliver his famous lecture on "Beautiful Triumphant America." Mr. Riley is an orator of much more than ordinary ability and all will want to hear him tell in his beautiful oratory of our own native land.

Thursday Hruby's Czech-Slovak Quintet and Josephine Martino, Soprano, will furnish the music. Miss Martino is a famous prima donna who has been personally complimented by President Wilson and other notables for her voice and the Quintet will give some delightful instrumental music. Dr. Cecile Griel, the only American survivor of the ill fated "Ancona" will speak in the afternoon and Dr. Frank Bohn will be the big attraction at night. Dr. Bohn made a lasting impression on a Maysville audience at last year's chautauqua speaking on "The Mind of Germany." This year he will speak on "Revolutionary Europe," a reconstruction lecture.

CITY BRINGS SUIT TO CLOSE ALLEY FOR WAREHOUSE CO.

Suit Filed in the Mason Circuit Court Today Asking Court to Forever Close the Northern End of Willow Alley as Public Thoroughfare.

City Attorney Charles L. Daly brought suit in the name of the City of Maysville against William Jones and Katie Jones, his wife, Laura and Jennie Potter and the Growers Warehouse Company, in the Mason Circuit Court today as the proper legal steps to close that section of Willow alley in the Fifth Ward between Morrison alley and Front street for the benefit of the Growers Warehouse Company.

Some time ago the Warehouse Company purchased all of the property lying East of Willow alley and on a line with their present building through to Water street and it is their desire to continue their building on through to Water street necessitating the building over this small part of Willow alley. City Council has granted the building permit and has instructed City Attorney Daly to take the necessary legal steps to close the alley.

It is necessary in legally closing an alley for the city to bring suit against the adjoining property owners giving them an opportunity to come into court and make complaint and furnish argument against the closing. If they so desire. The case will probably be heard in the September term of court and as there seems to be no objection to the closing of the alley, it is expected that the warehouse company will begin work on their new building in the immediate future.

FREIGHT TRAINS TAKE NO WATER HERE

Because of the water shortage in Maysville the Water Company has asked the C. & O. Railroad Company to make some arrangements to take water at some other station. A general order was issued today by two railroad instructing freight trains not to take water here and the company's pumping station at the old coal docks has been put in operation.

PROMINENT ABER- DEEN RESIDENT DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mr. Parker N. Bradford, One of the Most Prominent and Influential Citizens of Brown County, Ohio, Died This Morning of Heart Trouble.

Mr. Parker N. Bradford, aged 74 years, prominent resident of Aberdeen, died at his home in that town this morning at 8:30 o'clock following an illness of many months of heart trouble.

Mr. Bradford has spent the most part of his life in and about Aberdeen but for some time was in business in this city with Mr. W. B. Carpenter, now prominent printer and binder of Cincinnati, having gone to Cincinnati from this city with Mr. Carpenter as his partner. Being a very shrewd business man, Mr. Bradford had accumulated quite a fortune and was reckoned as probably the most wealthy citizen of Huntington township owning several hundred acres of the best land in Brown county besides other property.

Mr. Bradford was a gentleman of high type respected and honored by all who knew him.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lyde Herndon, of Louisville, and four sons, Mr. William Bradford, of Chicago, and Messrs. Glenn, Guyne and Hubert Bradford, of Aberdeen.

Funeral arrangements have not as been completed but it will probably be held some time Saturday. Full announcement will be made later.

The due execution of the paper was proven by the testimony of Russell Kirk and Stanley F. Reed, attesting witnesses and it was admitted to probate.

AND STAY OUT

There is just one thing of foreign birth should do if they don't like the government of the United States. They should get out.

"United we stand, divided we fall," is an old and time-tried motto, but the naval department tosses it into the discard when it stations half our fleet on the west of the continent and half on the east of it.—Chicago Post.

Contending that a poor man cannot afford to be ambassador at Washington, the British propose to raise their ambassador's salary. No wonder it has been impossible to get anybody to take the place.—Detroit Free Press.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS

"We are told that we shall 'break the heart of the world' if we do not take the league as it stands," says Senator Lodge. "I fear that the hearts of the vast majority of mankind would beat on strongly and steadily and without any quickening if the league were to perish altogether. If it should be effectively and beneficently changed, the people who would lie awake in sorrow for a single night could easily gathered in one not very large room, but those who would draw a long breath of relief would reach to millions."

Appropos of the President, Senator Lodge says: "We hear much of visions and I trust we shall continue to have visions and dream dreams of a fairer future for the race. But visions are one thing and visionaries are another, and the mechanical appliances of the rhetorician designed to give a picture of a present which does not exist and of a future which no man can predict are as unreal and shortlived as the steam or canvas clouds, the angels suspended on wires and the artificial lights of the stage. They pass with the moment of effect and are shabby and twdly in the daylight. Let us at least be real. Washington's entire honesty of mind and his fearless look into the fact of all the facts are qualities which can never go out of fashion and which we should do well to imitate."

Senator Borah: "I have in my desk perhaps the most brilliant defense that has been made in America of late years of the policy of isolation, so called, and of the maintenance of Washington's policy and of the Monroe doctrine, a defense made four years ago by the President of the United States. He stated, with his usual capacity for expression, that our great object was to maintain a situation wherein America could live her own life. He contended with great earnestness that we should keep out of all entangling alliances with European powers. With force and clearness, with fullness and breadth, he covered and defended the nonentangling policy as the only true and safe policy for this Republic."

"I have determined upon a course from which I have not deviated and, God being my help, I am not going to deviate from it for any possible reason that can be suggested in the Senate or any influence that can be exerted elsewhere. I do not say that I rely upon my own judgment in the matter but when I gather together in my mind's vision that body of men coming down from Washington and Jefferson and Madison and Monroe and Jackson and Lincoln and Grant and McKinley and Roosevelt and Wilson until four years ago, I reach the conclusion that I must remain in that company. Where in all the annals of government do you find such another group of men so distinguished for wisdom and courage and patriotism? Their company is safe enough for me."—Senator Borah.

Mr. Robinson, of Kentucky: "When the President was asking for more power under war regulations the other day did he not met with applause on the Democratic side?"

Mr. Fess, of Ohio: "It certainly did, as everything he says meets with outward applause over there, no matter what may be the common remarks in the cloakroom later. There are bitter enemies and there are the toastiest of toadies, who no matter what is said in public or done at home or abroad declare that it is all right, because we live in a time when certain people have abdicated individual opinions and bank upon the easy going practices of following a leader who cannot make or think of a mistake."

SOLDIERS PREPARING TO ENTER CIVILIAN LIFE

American Soldiers Home With a Desire to "Get Somewhere" Indications Show.

New York, N. Y., August 20.—The American soldier went away with a light heart, a smile and a whistle, but that he is home with a serious desire to "get somewhere" and emerge with Success as life's decoration, is reflected in the June statistical report of the Home Work department of the National War Work Council, Y. M. C. A. This report covers 22 military camps and stations in the United States, and shows that the moving soldier populations in the cantonments here are "feeding up" on lectures, and educational classes, are saving their money and are participating in all "Y" activities that will help to make civilian life easier.

Apparently the doughboy doesn't intend to plunge into the business of making a living without a "stake" other than his good health and determination, for the report reveals that these men in the home camps sent $265,528.08 home in June through money orders obtained at Y. M. C. A. buildings. This is regarded as significant, for these men, many of them, have been detained in camp for special service which is tedious and discouraging. Despite the fact they are chafing to get home they are brushing aside the temptation to spend their money on "leaves" to town, and are "salting" it away for the future.

INSULT TO SOLDIER DEAD

Washington, August 20.—That those who want the bodies of their boys who fought and died in France are "poor ignorant people", and that their remains are in any event just "a little box of bones", is the opinion of the State Department expressed in a letter sent to Representative Stephen G. Porter, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

"I regard the letter," says Representative Wood, of Indiana, "as a sickening insult to the father, mother and other relatives of every American soldier who gave us his life in France."

"This in spite of the fact" he continues, "that on March 28, 1918, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy entered into a written agreement that the remains of all officers, enlisted men and civilian employees of the army, navy and marine corps should be buried in France until the end of the war and then brought back to the United States for final interment. Our government gave its sacred promise and should keep it."

Nurses are being enrolled by the Red Cross to do public health work in communities where this field is not covered at the present time.

Now All You Good Fellows, Come Fill Up Your Pipes

15c

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

If ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts, Yo' mouth with friendly smoke—
An' let the old world wag."

PRESIDENT HAS POWER TO INCREASE WAGES

But Passes Back to Congress in Asking for Authority Which Was Given During War.

Washington, August 26.—That President Wilson has had the power all along to raise or decrease the wages of the railroad men of the country and has not only failed in his duty to exercise that power, but has turned the problem over to Congress, is the charge made by Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce.

"We have not taken from the President the power to initiate rates," said the Senator. "We have not taken from him any power whatsoever. It is true that the Senate passed the bill a month ago restoring to the Interstate Commerce Commission the authority to suspend rates which might be initiated by the President, or the director general, just as before the war it might have suspended rates which were initiated by the railway companies. But that bill has not become a law. It has been obstructed in the House of Representatives by the Railroad Administration itself. So that the authority as well as the duty of initiative rates which may be necessary to meet the demands for increased wages at the present time rests with the director general.

Why Central Can Not Answer Questions

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

When in response to a question, the operator says: "I will give you Chief Operator", she is obeying her instruction.

If you cannot find what you want in the telephone directory, ask the operator for "Chief Operator" and she will connect you with the "Chief Operator" where your questions will be promptly answered.

Together and Buy Food at Post Office—City's Apportionment Will Be Exhausted.Postmaster M. F. Kehoe is proving quite a successful food merchant for in the past two days he has sold a large supply of food stuffs at prices fixed by the government which are considerably under the prices prevailing in local grocery stores at the present time.At noon Wednesday, the last day of the sale, the supply of tomatoes, peas, corn, dried beans and several other articles allotted to the local Post Office had been exhausted and orders had been placed for the other foods offered in this sale so that indications were that when the shop was closed at 6 o'clock tonight the apportionment of all the food stuffs will have been exhausted.The fact that the government would take orders for this food only in case lots at first seemed to work against the laboring man but the peculiar thing about the results as the orders showed at noon today was that the most of this food has been purchased by factory employees. In the factories and the shops the men and the women have clubbed together ordering, in some instances, several cases of one certain article.PASTIME

FIRE BELLS STRIKE
TERROR TO HEARTS
OF CITY'S CITIZENSSmall Rubbish Fire in East End Alley Calls Out Fire Department and Because of Water Shortage Citizens Become Much Exalted.What the people of Maysville have feared for the past several days seemed to have come shortly after noon today when an alarm of fire came in from box 63 in the East end and when the big bell in the fire tower rang out the alarm faces of persons living in that section of the city became white while all residents feared the worst.Fortunately when the fire department arrived on the scene, they found that there was but a bon fire in Willow alley near the Forest Avenue school, which was put out in a very short time to the credit of a bucket brigade, it being unnecessary for the department to use water from the fire hydrants.The fire was started by the burning by a neighbor of a small bundle of papers which had been thrown into the alley. The burning papers, however, caught dry leaves and tree limbs in the alley and quite a little fire blazed up in a very short time which was making for a residence nearby and as the residence was threatened the firm alarm was sent in.Conditions for the fighting of fires are better today than they were yesterday and yet they are far from normal and every possible precaution should be taken by every one. No rubbish or paper should be burned in any alley or yard. Everything is so very dry that the least spark might start a conflagration that would cause the loss of much property and possibly lives. The local fire department, with the water system so badly crippled, is in no condition to fight even the smallest fire and citizens are charged to even watch how they throw lighted matches in their yards where the grass is as dry as to possibly burst into a blaze. Fire Chief Ruliff Newell this afternoon issued an official notice on this matter which is published elsewhere in this issue.The water condition in Maysville is much better today than for the past several days. The large pump at the Water Company's station is in operation. The major part of the water taken from the river by this large pump is taken directly into the city mains but the "cut-off valve" is partly opened and a small stream is going steadily into the reservoir which remains closed for fire emergencies.Acting with the authority conferred on him at a special meeting Tuesday by City Council, Mayor Thomas M.
Russell, has rented two large fire pumping engines from the City of Cincinnati. He has been advised that these engines were loaded today aboard a freight car in Cincinnati and they are expected to arrive in Maysville over the C. & O. this evening or tomorrow morning. These engines will be used in case of emergency and to test them out thoroughly. Mayor Russell will probably use them to extinguish the city dump on Bridge street which has been giving residents in that section of the city a great amount of trouble. One of the engines will likely be placed on a float at the mouth of Limestone creek to pump water from the river and the other stationed at the dump to give force to the water. This will be indeed good news to those who have been so much bothered by the terrible odor from the burning dump and they hope that the engines will work well at this job.

Buy in Maysville. It pays.

KENTUCKIAN LEADS
U. S. TROOPS IN SEARCH OF BANDITSCavalrymen Dash Into Mexican Desert
In Search of Bandits Who Kidnapped U. S. Officers.El Paso, Texas, August 20.—Four troops of the Eighth United States Cavalry, reinforced by four airplanes from Ft. Bliss, resumed their hunt at dawn today for Mexican bandits who kidnapped Lieutenant H. G. Peterson and Paul H. Davis.After a night spent in a fireless camp in the barren wastes of the Ojinaga country, the American troopers, led by Captain Leonard Matlack, and with the two rescued aviators as guides, took up the almost hopeless chase. A cloudburst had obliterated the trail.The only contact reported with Mexicans was by the pilot of one plane which returned to Marfa with bullet-riddled wings. Three Mexicans fired on the machine and the observers replied with a machine gun, killing one Mexican, the flier believed.Captain Matlack, who paid $7500 of the $15,000 ransom and galloped off with Lieutenant Davis to the stupefied surprise of the bandits, said before leading his forces back into Mexico:"I'm going to get back that money."
The Kentuckian, with a record of 18 years in the regular army, is leading his men over one of the wildest districts of northern Mexico, cut up by arroyos, jagged mountains and deserts. The troops carried only meager visions to Candelaria, and thence a field telegraph wire to Colonel George Langhorne's quarters in Marfa is their only means of communication.With canyons, and hills affording the bandits many possible hiding places, the American troops are confronted by a difficult task, but military authorities are hopeful the bandits will be captured or killed.Major Gen. J. T. Dickman, commander of the Southern Department, is expected to reach Marfa today to direct border operations in the Big Bend district. Colonel Royce, chief of the Aviation Corps under Dickman, already has arrived in Marfa.The will of the late Mr. William A.
Marsh was admitted to probate in the Mason County Court this afternoon.
